PlayMonster Launches Two New Stratego Games: Waterloo and Conquest!

BELOIT, Wis. – PlayMonster is excited to announce its popular board game Stratego® is now available in two different versions: Stratego® Waterloo and Stratego® Conquest!

Stratego is the classic game of battlefield strategy that has sold over 20 million copies worldwide. For over 50 years, Stratego has thrilled strategy game fans by inspiring them to challenge an opponent and attempt to capture the flag!

Stratego Waterloo – What’s different? This version of Stratego is a much more intricate version involving re-enactments of real historic battles. The age range is also different at 12+ and up, instead of 8+.

Stratego Conquest – What’s exciting about this version of Stratego is that it can be played with up to 4 players, as opposed to 2 players. This has a new theme that feels more medieval and fantastical with castles and sorcerers! Stratego Conquest is in the style of “capture the flag” with a bit of a twist: If your flag is captured, you can still play and win your flag back if there are other flags that remain on the board.
